“A scarce few can actually see the “big picture”. Sheri Andrunyk has “big picture” insight and is wonderfully adept at clearing your mental clutter so that you can see it too. Far too often we get caught up in the day-to-day minutia of running our business, and lose sight of why we are in business and how to most efficiently run it... Sheri is gifted in her ability to listen, understand and communicate solutions that make the most of your time so you can achieve the life-work balance without compromise.”

Bob Kyriakidis, Photographer/Videographer/Owner, Digital Light & Magic

“Sheri has a brilliant business mind and I have had the good fortune of experiencing that during our coaching sessions. My strengths do not lie in that area so her input has been extremely valuable to me. What makes Sheri stand out from other coaches that I have worked with is her genuine desire to help others... It is not just about business. It's about doing whatever she can to better the lives of others.”

Monique Henchey, Honours B.Sc., Spiritual Psychotherapist, Author

“... Sheri stands out in a crowd because of her positive outlook on life and the warmth and compassion she shows to her fellow men/women. She is a great source of inspiration to all the beauty consultants she has trained and mentored. Her relentless efforts and passion for what she believes in, show in the way she is able to transfer these qualities to (others)... Success will follow (Sheri) because of her integrity and commitment. She has always been a pillar of strength to us all and is never too busy to listen and show interest in others. Sheri, it is said that a person grows by the people they know and I must say that I have grown a great deal by knowing you. All the best...”
